

Library / Research guides / Library Research Guides / IEEE Citation Style / Patents

IEEE Citation Style

Home

IEEE examples

Books

E-books

Conferences

Journal

articles - print

Journal

articles - electronic & online

Media (DVDs, YouTube, etc.)

Patents

Web

documents,
websites, etc.

Generative A.
I.

Citing in the Text

Formatting

Recommended
URLs

Sample

Reference List

Report writing for engineers

Information for patents

If the patent has multiple dates listed use the issue date as publication date.

It may be difficult to find a persistent URL or DOI to include in your citation

IEEE Format: Patents

Standard format for citation

[#] A. Author, "Title of patent," Patent Number, Month Day, Year.
Available: URL or Database Name, Accessed on: Month Day, Year.
Available: Source.

Patent examples

Canadian patent application

[1] P. Di Benedetto and G. Colacitti. "Unmanned Aerial Vehicle Delivery System," CA 3031287, Jan 18, 2019, http://www.ic.gc.ca/opic-cipo/cpd/eng/patent/3031287/summary.html?query=Drone+delivery&type=basic_search, Accessed on Jul 25, 2019. [Online].

Canadian patent

[2] F. Buevich et al. "Temporarily Stiffened Mesh Protheses," CA 2637578, Mar 31, 2015, http://www.ic.gc.ca/opic-cipo/cpd/eng/patent/2637578/summary.html?query=prosthesis+medical&type=basic_search, Accessed on Jul 25, 2019. [Online].